CONVICT HELD IN SCHEME TO CHEAT WIDOW

(By Universal Service)

SAN JOSE, July 27.—Her plans to marry Joseph C. Watson rudely shattered, Mrs. Mae B. Silver, 45, attractive widow, is in bed under the care of her daughter at her home at 261 E. St. James street here, while her fiancé, whose real name is Joseph C. Murphy, is held in the city jail with two companions, charged with conspiracy to defraud, a felony.

Mrs. Silver herself made the charge, and then, stunned at the accusation that the fiancé was an ex-convict and had deceived her, collapsed and is being cared for by her daughter.

According to Chief of Police J. N. Black, Murphy, under the name of Watson, became acquainted with Mrs. Silver several months ago and was to marry her within a week. A few days ago he told her he had become involved with bad checks while intoxicated and needed $500 to "square himself." This Mrs. Silver turned over to him upon his promise to repay her shortly.

Last night Murphy returned to Mrs. Silver's home with two others, Eugene Valencia and Sam Valli, and representing that they were San Francisco officers, said he had to have $150 or he was "done for." Mrs. Silver gave him all she had, $10, and told him to come back in the morning for the balance.

Her young daughter, Madeline Silver, suspicious, followed the automobile in which the three drove away, and, convinced that Murphy's two companions were not police officers, notified Chief of Police J. N. Black. Detectives Charles Hertel and O. D. McClintan arrested the trio when they reappeared at Mrs. Silver's home this morning.

Murphy has served two terms at San Quentin, one at Folsom and another in a Colorado prison on forgery charges, according to Chief Black.

President Finds Business Gains

PAUL SMITH, New York, July 27. General business conditions on a high wave are more than meeting the expectations of President Coolidge and his cabinet, it was announced today.

Business of the first six months of the year has been exceptional. Nor has the "slowing down" predicted for the second half of the year been experienced. In fact the business since July 1st has shown a steady advance, it was said.

Garrard Boulevard To Observe First Anniversary Of Promised Paving Improvements, Aug 12

With the first anniversary of the signing of the contract for the paving of Garrard boulevard drawing near and the approach of the rainy season, announcement was made yesterday that construction of the street would begin as soon as the sub-contract with the California Construction company is signed by the Santa Fe railroad.

On August 12, 1925, the original contract between the Northern Paving company of Los Angeles and the Key System Transit company, and the Santa Fe Railroad was signed. Work was to have been started as soon as the rainy season had ended and the ground had sufficiently dried. Delay after delay was caused with representatives of the paving company appearing before the city council and assuring them that the work would be started in "a week or two." Reasons for the delay were repeatedly set forth.

Utility Magnate Contributed To Various Election Funds During The Illinois Primaries

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, July 27.—Samuel Insull's campaign contributions were distributed, it was learned, at least generally, among the various political camps in the April Primary, testimony before the Senatorial committee revealed today.

Roy O. West, secretary of the Republican National committee and an adherent of Senator McKinley's candidacy, testified at the afternoon session of the utilities magnate whose friendship he had enjoyed for twenty five years, had contributed $10,000 to the county ticket, but with the provision that it should be used against the interests of Col. Frank L. Smith, Senator McKinley's opponent.

Thus far the Insull contributions revealed are roughly:
To the Smith Campaign $25,000.
To the Brennan Campaign $5,000.
To west's committee 10,000.
Insull himself is to be recalled by Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, chairman of the Senate committee, for questioning as to his contributions, if any, to the Crowe-Barrett faction funds.

In the questioning of West, Senator Reed revealed that he was not seeking to establish Insull's interest in the candidacy of Col. Smith, but rather to establish connections with the utilities companies headed by Insull.

"Was Col. Smith a member of the Illinois Commerce Commission at the time of the Insull contribution?"
West replied in the affirmative. "Was there pending before the Illinois Commerce Commission at the time a certificate of convenience and necessity involving the

HEAVY LOSS IN HURRICANE ON FLORIDA COAST

Weather Bureau Warns Against Tropical Hurricane Which Is Sweeping Coast

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, July 27.—A tropical hurricane is sweeping up the east coast of Florida with a velocity at some points of 70 to 90 miles an hour, the Navy department announced tonight. Radio reports from the Navy department station at Jupiter Florida said the wind was increasing to that velocity at 5:20 p. m. A light rain was reported three hours later at 50 to 60 miles an hour. The wind was from the southwest.

Key West reported a velocity of only 29 miles and St. Augustine 25, indicating that the hurricane had swept northward.

Northeast storm warnings were bulletined by the weather bureau late today and fear that the storm may turn inland to Florida was shown in the storm warnings also ordered north of Tampa to the Gulf of Mexico.

The center of the hurricane later was veering northwest toward the Florida coast and serious damage may be caused tonight if it is feared the gale strikes again with full intensity on the coast.

The passenger steamer Orizaba which is near the hurricane center between Jupiter and West Palm Beach on the east coast reported a 100 mile gale.

Bouillon Refuses Washington Post

(By Universal Service)
BY FRANK E. MASON
PARIS, July 27.—M. Franklin Bouillon today declined the Ambassadorship to Washington which was proffered to him yesterday by the Poincare cabinet.

"Yes, I have declined to accept any post from the present government," he said to Universal Service today. "After the campaign which I waged against ratification of the settlement reached at Washington, I doubt if I am the man to be sent to the American capital."

"I have also declined the proffered post at Angora. But if I ever see Berenger preparing to return as ambassador to Washington, I will demand that a special session of parliament be convened to overthrow the government."

Cancel Patent On Famous Radio Device

Lee De Forest Declared Actual Inventor of "Heart and Soul" Of The Radio.

(By Universal Service)
PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Federal Judge J. J. Thompson of the eastern district of Pennsylvania today handed down a decision cancelling the patent of Edwin H. Armstrong for the widely used "feed-back regenerative circuit" which automatically declares Lee de Forest to be actual inventor.

This decision marks the final stage of the bitterly fought series of legal battles.

"The feed-back regenerative circuit had been aptly termed 'the heart and soul of radio.' Without it broadcasting would be impossible," Attorney Samuel E. Darby, Jr., said. Dr. de Forest's regenerative transmitter with its novel circuit was held to be the original invention of this essential device when in September 1924 the District of Columbia Court of Appeals reversed the commissioner of patents and granted priority of invention to Dr. de Forest over Major Armstrong.

"The De Forest radio company's suit for cancellation was necessitated by the contention of the Westinghouse interests that the United States Court of Appeals in New York has sustained the Armstrong patent, and the licensed manufacturers under it include the Radio Corporation of America, General Electric company, and nearly a score of other radio manufacturers. It has been estimated that this essential circuit is in use in over one-half of all the radio sets or receivers built and sold in the United States since Dr. de Forest's invention of the three-electrode audion.

The profits accruing to the De Forest Radio company from the infringing use of this circuit by the Westinghouse company and its licensees will be enormous as a result of today's decision Darby predicted.

Entire Ranch May Be closed Under Abatement Law

One of the hardest questions of his career will come before Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado at Martinez when the question of whether the law permits the abatement of an entire ranch for violation of the Volstead law in a proceeding submitted to him yesterday is heard.

The question is the result of a suit instituted by District Attorney A. B. Tinning against Jack Imhoff, owner of a tract of eleven and one-half acres near Concord which the county attorney is asking the court to close for one year for alleged infractions of the liquor laws.

Imhoff holds that his entire ranch cannot be abated even if he is adjudged guilty of liquor sales.

Two county prohibition officers testified that they purchased liquor from Imhoff but were unable to name the place on the ranch where the sales were made.

A subsequent raid on the premises failed to reveal any liquor, the officers admit.

Imhoff and his wife deny that any liquor sales took place. Prior to the raid an employee of the ranch was arrested and fined for illegal possession of liquor.

ORMISTON AND EVANGELIST SPENT 10 DAYS AT COTTAGE IN CARMEL SAY OFFICIALS

EVANGELIST SENDS APPEAL TO ORMISTON

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, July 27.—With Captain Cline, Chief of Los Angeles detectives, at Carmel by-the-Sea today personally checking reported new and startling evidence in the Almee Semple McPherson case gathered by Deputy District Attorney Joe Ryan, Mrs. McPherson issued a public written appeal to Kenneth G. Ormiston.

Ormiston, formerly employed as a radio expert at Angelus Temple, was requested to make known his whereabouts between May 18 and June 22. For ten days during this period, according to Deputy Ryan, a man identified as Ormiston is alleged to have occupied a cottage at Carmel with a mysterious "woman with goggles." The woman, witnesses interviewed by Ryan stated, bore a striking resemblance to Mrs. McPherson.

A request by Ryan that Mrs. McPherson permit her fingerprints to be taken for comparison with those of the woman at the Carmel cottage was indignantly refused by Mrs. McPherson's attorneys.

"We do not intend to permit Mrs. McPherson to be subjected to such indignity," said Attorney Arthur Velth, "Mrs. McPherson was not at the Carmel cottage with any man."

"As far as fingerprints are concerned, Mrs. McPherson's fingerprints are on the altar of her church and on her Bible."

District Attorney Asa Keyes indicated today that he would await Deputy Ryan's personal report on the reputed new evidence before taking any action. Foreman Carter of the grand jury has announced that the jury stood ready to reopen the McPherson case investigation at any time.

In her appeal to Ormiston, Mrs. McPherson said in part: "If this should reach you anywhere in the world, will you come forward in the interest of justice and make known the facts of your actions and whereabouts during the time elapsing between May 18 and June 22 of this year?"

"You came to us a stranger. We endeavored to be fair and showed Christian consideration to yourself and your wife when you were in trouble. We still want to be fair and believe in you both."

"Since May 18, when I was forcibly taken from my home, children and work, your name has been constantly before the public in an endeavor to link it with the case and an attempt to dishonor my name and work thereby."

"Many believe you were a party to the kidnapping plot and received large sums of money, being paid to drive around the country and be seen here and there with an unknown 'mystery' woman, resembling myself."

"It would seem that any true man who knew the diabolical attempt to assassinate my name and great work by linking it with such a story would come out with a clear statement to our office."

"Will you do this?"

Facts Tell the Story Says Ryan Who Investigates New Angle In Disappearance Case

(By Universal Service)
CARMEL, Cal., July 27.—The Almee Semple McPherson "kidnap" mystery has been solved.

Instead of being held the hostage by kidnapers, as she claimed, Mrs. McPherson, in reality, spent the first 10 days following her disappearance at a seaside cottage in Carmel with Kenneth G. Ormiston, former radio operator at Mrs. McPherson's Angelus Temple in Los Angeles.

This was the emphatic declaration of Assistant District Attorney Joseph Ryan late today.

"The facts tell the story," said Ryan, jubilant that he had exploded Mrs. McPherson's story of her alleged kidnapping which has attracted world-wide attention.

Ryan said that he would turn his evidence over to the Los Angeles county grand jury.

"I am fully satisfied now," said Ryan, "that Kenneth Ormiston and Mrs. McPherson occupied the beach cottage for nearly ten days. The clues I have unearthed since Saturday are the first definite ones in the whole affair."

"There no longer exists any doubt in my mind," continued Ryan, "as to what became of Almee McPherson after she disappeared on the beach at Ocean Park. I have hand writing examples, grocery lists, clothing and personal identification by a dozen persons who saw both the man and woman living at this cottage and they have established their identity beyond any doubt."

"The case is now complete so far as the district attorney's office is concerned."

Captain of Detectives Herman Cline of Los Angeles, here to assist Ryan, sought to talk with Mrs. McPherson on the long distance telephone but the evangelist refused to speak with him.

Cline put in the call from a local hotel. Someone, unknown to Cline, answered the telephone at the Angelus Temple in Los Angeles. (Continued to page 3)

DISCONTENT WITH NATURE

Men and women are perverse; and often intolerant of what nature does to them. They get to regarding natural changes as against and not for them. They rebel against natural functions and adopt artificial measures to thwart them.

Time was when men greeted nature's demonstrations of adult life with pleasure. They were proud when a beard came to them, and petted it. Now they go to a world of trouble to remove the hair from their chins and cheeks. And strangely, when years of tight unventilated hats bring baldness to their scalps, they resist it vigorously with "tonics" and all sorts of medication. They shave all the hair off their chins and cheeks, but complain bitterly when it drops off the top of their heads.

Recently women have been showing similar discontent. For unnumbered generations they gloried in their shining abundant hair, and the more luxuriously and longer it grew the better pleased they were. Now they bob it and shingle it. If it grows straight, they visit the beauty shops to have it curled and marcelled. White women want curly, wavy hair, and colored women want-straight hair, and both spend their money and time freely to change their natural appearance.

And everywhere slim men and women seek plumpness and plump people seek thinness—dissatisfied with nature and hateful in their attitude toward her benevolences. Even ears have been out of the good graces of women for years and they hide them; but at the same time they expose their elbows, which are often unsightly, and now the drift of attire upward promises exposure of knees which on slender people are seldom objects of beauty.

EXTRAVAGANCE IN PENNSYLVANIA

What do these Democrats mean by alleging extravagance to the republicans in Pennsylvania Senator Pepper and his friends spent about $1,500,000. Mr. Vare spent about $500,000 and Governor Pinchot $200,000. Now admittedly these are good round round sums. Even as primaries go, this one came high, but extravagance after all is a relative matter. For example, take this disclosure of the open-handed manner in which the democrats threw money around in that same campaign. We had Senator David Reed's word for it that Pennsylvania was no "petty western state"; things are done on the grand scale in Pennsylvania. The expense account of Mr. William B. Wilson, the successful democratic candidate, bears him out completely. Mr. Wilson's committee it seems, actually ran through a fund of $10,000. There's a sensation worth talking about! We do not refer, of course, to the fact that there was a democratic candidate for a great many persons doubtless heard all about that long since. But if one democrat can spend $10,000 in Pennsylvania, it is unreasonable for three Pennsylvania republicans to spend two and a half millions? There ought to be another investigation. The public has a right to know who would give $10,000 to nominate a democrat in Pennsylvania and why—Ex.

BEAUTY HINTS

By Peggy Hopkins Joyce

Do you realize how much more care you should take with your summer "make-up" than in any other season? The white light of the summer sun is quite merciless in revealing cosmetic defects. This is especially true at the beach. If you will follow a few hard and fast make-up rules, you may all, as the sunflowers, turn your faces unflinchingly to the sun's most ungraciously inquiring rays.

Don't ever rouge both cheeks to look the same. Nature never does. Place it high, rather than low on the cheeks. Let it fade into the lower part of the cheek. You will achieve an illusion of breadth, the farther out on the cheek bone the color is placed. To narrow the face place it closer toward the nose. Dark pink or coral powders are much better than white ones. Always wield your powder and rouge puff in the lightest place in your room.

WHEN INCOME DWINDES

Usually no storm comes more rapidly than a financial one, and if it comes to you it is then your sacrificial courage is going to be tested. Your husband will never love you more, or need you more truly, than when he tells you that the firm with which he has been connected must curtail expenses and that he has been dropped from the payroll. Of course, you may have misgivings, but try to keep them fast within the recesses of your own mind, and start planning. Be practical. Get out your budget and go over it carefully. Look over all expenditures and cut out what are unnecessary. Cultivate your resourcefulness. You will be surprised at the things you will be able to accomplish and at the joy of achievement. It was no mathematical calculation that brought you to this unexpected tragedy but it is a great time to rivet your comradeship.

"BRONCHO BILLY" ANDERSON, One-Time Movie Cowboy Hero Now Manages His Own Theatrical Enterprises.

Think back to the days of the five-cent movie, the days of the flickering film and the "Just a Moment Please to Repair the Film" signs. Those were the days of the first "two-reel" photoplays and the cowboy dramas. Heroes, heroines, villains, Indians, and bad men raced across the screen, but none raced more often or with greater flair and dash than the swagger, devil-may-care "Broncho Billy."

Broncho Billy with his dusty sombrero, his flaming bandana, the leather or sheep-skin chaps, and that wicked looking six-shooter captured many a feminine heart. He was not the debonaire, well-dressed, sophisticated movie hero of today—rather he was typical of that great rough outdoors West, when men were men even if they did have broken noses and unkempt clothes. Broncho Billy flashed and passed on. Others have taken his place on the screen. But none can take his place in our movie memories. Today, Broncho Billy is Mr. Gilbert M. Anderson, and he is a theatrical director. He recently invaded New York night life with a cabaret that made its mark and established the reputation of Mr. Anderson as a dominating figure in the theatrical world.

Several theatres in the west owe their success to the business ability of Mr. Anderson.

THE MOTHER OF J. OGDEN ARMOUR

The father of the Chicago packer, J. Ogden Armour, began his business career digging ditches in California during the gold rush. He had intended staking a claim and making his fortune in gold, and for that purpose had started to walk from New York to the coast, together with four companions. One of these died, two returned, but Philip Armour got there.

He found that staking claims was not so easy and that money could be immediately obtained by simply working. He began digging ditches for five dollars a day and ten dollars a night, and he saw so much profit in this work that he became a ditch contractor and in five years made a profit of eight thousand dollars—no inconsiderable sum in those days. That started the Armour fortune.

Since Armour senior never had much time for schooling he felt no embarrassment in taking every opportunity to tell people that "my culture" is mostly in my wife's name. And it was from this lady, Belle Ogden, that the eldest Armour son received his greatest inspiration. She was his intimate companion and "J. O." as he is known to his friends, considers it one of the most beautiful things in his life that he can speak of the part his mother played not only in the successful up building of his own life, but in the lives of the Armour family, its fortunes, and enormous business interests.

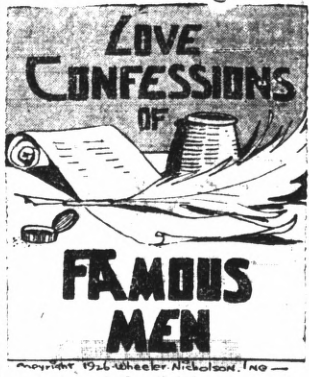

It was also Mrs. Belle Ogden who helped Armour organize the Armour Institute of Technology and gave for the support of that school something like a million dollars.

HAMILTON'S COURTING

Alexander Hamilton, as ardent a lover as he was a patriot, a brilliant statesman, and already a leader of men at twenty-two, found his love destiny when General George Washington sent him on a mission to Albany where he met Elizabeth, daughter of Gen. Philip Schuyler. Love was kindled at once and it soon leaped into a flame.

The quality of young Hamilton's courting can be judged by the following letter to his pretty Betsy:

"I suspect that if others knew the charms of my sweetheart as I do, I should have a great number of competitors I wish I could give you an idea of her. You can have no conception of how sweet a girl she is. She has a lovely form and a still more lovely mind. She is all goodness, the gentlest, the dearest, the tenderest of her sex. Ah, Betsy, how I love her!"

ELIZABETH HAMILTON

"Well, my love, here is the middle of October; a few weeks more and you are nine; a sweet reflection to me is 't so to my charmer? Do you find yourself more or less anxious for the moment to arrive as it approaches?"

"I have stopped to read my letter it is a motley mixture of fond extravagance and sprightly dullness; the truth is I am too much in love to be either reasonable or witty; I feel in the extreme; and when I attempt to speak my feelings, I rave."

"I have remarked to you before that real tenderness has also a tincture of sadness and when I affect a lively spirit my melting heart rebels. It is separated from you and it cannot be cheerful. Love is a sort of insanity and everything I write savors strongly of it; that you return it is the best proof of your madness also."

geles. Cline gave his name, said that he was speaking from Carmel and would like to talk with Mrs. McPherson.

After waiting for several minutes the message came back that "Mrs. McPherson does not care to talk to Captain Cline."

Ryan was informed late today that Mrs. McPherson had refused his suggestion that she forward copies of her fingerprints for comparison with fingerprints found in the cottage.

Indications that something had been dragged in the dirt under the cottage, was found by Harry Marks, former New York detective sergeant now attached to the Monterey Police Department.

Marks, Chief of Police Gabrielson of Monterey and Ryan were investigating at a late hour. Later, Marks said, he would "probe a cesspool in the rear of the cottage."

Photographs of Mrs. McPherson and Ormiston have been identified by thirteen persons as "Mr. and Mrs. George McIntire," who occupied the cottage.

"There can be no doubt as to the accuracy of their identifications," said Ryan.

GIRL DEMANDS THE LIFE OF OWN MOTHER

A girl demanded the life of her own mother!

Victor Fleming, noted screen director, is said to have turned this intensely dramatic story into a gripping picture, rich in romance, pathos, suspense and emotion.

The action involves four principal characters: a young, precocious attorney, played by Jack Holt; a New York politician, portrayed by Ernest Torrence, his daughter and Holt's fiancée, charmingly personified by Esther Ralston; and the mystery woman, impersonated by Louise Dresser.

Miss Dresser is accused of murdering Torrence. Events leading up to and following the crime indicate that she is the guilty one. The gun found alongside the dead man's body is proved to be hers. She was last seen with Torrence. Her last boy was discovered in the room where the murder had been committed. She was fleeing from the city at the time of her arrest. This and other circumstantial evidence are used to build the case up against her.

Holt is told to prosecute and Miss Ralston demands that he ask for the extreme penalty. Unknown to the girl, the accused woman is her own mother, who had deserted her husband many years before. What happens when Holt resigns his position and gives up the case to make up a picture of tremendous appeal.

Other features include "Nothing Matters," a Lloyd Hamilton comedy, "Songs of Spain," "Chop of the Old Black," a Dodge Police, "International News," and "Lucky Combs," at the organ.

Father Flanagan's Boys' Band To Play In Memorial Hall August 6

When John Philip Sousa, world's greatest band leader, was in Omaha, he was greeted by Father Flanagan's Boys' Home band. He said the reception he received from these orphaned boys at the depot meant more to him than the receptions from royal personages on his many European tours.

Sousa praised the homeless boys' band and said it was one of the best groups of juvenile entertainers he has ever seen. Father Flanagan's Boys' Shows is called by critics everywhere "The Greatest Boys' Show on Earth."

"The Greatest Boys' Show on Earth" will be in Richmond on Friday August 6. They will give two performances at Memorial Hall. The afternoon performance for children will start at 4 p. m. and the evening performance for adults only will start at 8:15 p. m. Admission to both is free.

Dan Deslandes, one of the best known band masters of the middle-west, has taken final charge of the show, adding the touches on a show that is already accorded to be a real musical comedy hit.

Miss Lena Colombo, stenographer in Attorney Clare D. Horner's office and Miss Teresa Collo, of Albany are spending their vacation in Guerneville. They will be gone about one week. During Miss Colombo's absence Miss Lorraine Zane will take her place.

ELKS GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD IN NEAR FUTURE

ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT AT CARQUINEZ

Antlered Golfers are Getting in Shape for Annual Classic Of The Order

With the wind that has been sweeping the course of the Carquinez Golf club dying down and presenting beautiful golfing weather, plans are now progressing for the staging of a tournament between the best golfers in the Elks club.

Last year Frank Gordon, a husky lad who packs a wonderful wallop behind his woods took the championship and was rewarded with a beautiful silver loving cup. Art Alstrom managed the tournament that year but this year every detail will be in the hands of last year's champ.

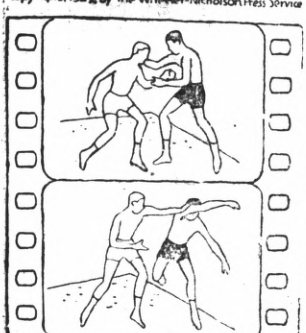

Owing to the fact that Gordon is vacationing at the present time the details for this year's matches have not been learned but according to members of the Carquinez club the affair will be staged with three prizes being awarded; one to the champion, the other to the runner up and the third is a perpetual cup.

In all probabilities a qualifying round will be staged over the not too difficult eighteen holes before the real tournament starts.

The exact date for the affair has not been announced but it is thought that it will take place some time during August.

In the meantime the Elks golfers, and would be golfers, are shining up their trusty putters and retaping their drivers and hoping that they will be the winner.

Pete Meyers Who Will Take George Egel On For Another Ten Round Bout Friday Night

Pete Meyers, sensational San Francisco youngster, who meets George Egel in a 10 round return bout Friday night, Meyers knocked out Egel in the first round in their last meeting here two weeks ago, causing one of the most surprising upsets in boxing annals in years, as Egel just returned from Australia where he has met and defeated Harry Collins, Australian title holder, twice, by knockouts.

Egel and Meyers are boxing on a winner take all basis, and the bout promises to be one of the fiercest 10 round boxing contests seen here.

Charley Birch of Richmond will have it out once and for all with Frankie Novell of Berkeley in the 6 round semi-final. Novell holds a K. O. victory over Birch scored in two rounds, and then they were rematched and the pair fought a hammer and tongs draw bout. This will be their third meeting and over the 6 round route it should settle which of the two is the better man. The first two affairs were 4 rounders.

Al Robinson of San Francisco who defeated Young Pancho Villa at the last boxing show at El Cerrito will box Jimmy Bell of San Diego in the 4 round special event. The rest of the card will be Young Mike Gibbons vs Cyclone Pete, 150 pounds and Kid Shadow vs Young Percy, 140 pounds.

Matchmaker Harry Egels predicts one of the largest crowds of the year will witness Friday night's boxing show. The Meyer-Egel bout is attracting boxing fans from Oakland, San Francisco, and Berkeley, and if indications are near right Winters Pavilion will be too small to hold the crowds.

JAPANESE NET STAR VICTOR OVER SHIELDS

(By Universal Service)
By GEORGE E. TIMPSON

BROOKLYN, July 27.—Takeichi Harada leading Davis cup star of Japan had one of the hardest fights of his career in the United States today before he conquered Frank Shields, national boy champion in the second round of the Metropolitan grass court championship at the Crescent Athletic club 6-0, 4-6, 6-3.

Harada will meet Julius Seligson tomorrow afternoon and unless signs fail, will have another struggle on his hands.

William T. Tilden, 2nd., made short work of his match for entrance into the round of eight, against Sadakazu Onida the young Japanese who is an unusually steady player, but has no finishing shots. Tilden allowed him only two games in the first set and one in the second.

Bryan L. C. Norton now fully recovered from his knee injury had a real task on his hands to overcome John Doeg, the Santa Monica junior, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Another three set match was contested between Lucien E. Williams, former intercollegiate champion of Chicago and Jack Wright of the Canadian Davis cup team. Williams was the victim after a sternly fought match, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

The defeat of one of the former stars of international play Watson Washburn was accomplished by Alfred H. Shapin, Jr., who bested the former Davis cup player and national doubles champion 6-4, 6-1.

The big surprise of the day came when Hugh G. M. Kelleher scored the first upset of the tourney by defeating Francis T. Hunter, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5. He was extremely steady while the Olympic titleholder was somewhat inaccurate in his drive.

Dr. George King was also in difficulties in his match against Luis Heyden the Pan-American star who holds the Kings county title but finally came through successful, 6-3, 7-5.

The first Metropolitan junior grass court tennis championship ever staged, was started in connection with the men's Metropolitan title competition, with twenty seven competitors that rank with the best in the country.

Berkeley Bell, the sensational junior from Austin, Texas, and Julius Seligson, the Columbia grammar school boy, were the two leading stars and each reached the third round in straight sets. Seligson took two matches in quick succession, defeating E. S. Daly, local boy, 6-0, 6-1, and then conquering John H. Pitman, Jr., captain of the Hill school team, 6-4, 6-1.

Bell defeated Eben E. Whitman, 6-4, 6-1.

Pin Crashers End First Half Of Handicap
The fifth round, concluding the first half of the individual handicap bowling was staged last night at the Seventh street alleys.

Barrielles and Olivette staged the game of the evening, Olivette losing to the former by 69 points in the total score.

The game arranged for Thursday and Friday in the second half are as follows:

Thursday Night
Nyström vs O'Rourke at 7:30.
Hadley vs Bostik at 7:30.
Nesbit vs Miller at 8:30.
O'Loan vs Russell at 8:30.

Friday Night
Griffin vs Carr at 7:30.
Hayds vs Westman at 7:30.
Matthews vs Murphy at 8:30.
Barrielles vs J. Baker at 8:30.

Champions Past and Present

Twenty years ago, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy won the highest tennis honors that America has to offer a woman, that of the National Women's Tennis Singles Championship. Today, Mrs. Bundy is still a contender for that title, and although she has not succeeded in winning another National Championship since 1924, she has proved more than once to be the nemesis of some of our present day women artists of the court who were waving rattles when she was first making perfect court-shot shots.

Miss Helen Wills the present Women's National Champion, and frequently referred to as the Californian Hurricane, has with the possible exception of the famous Miss. Lenglen, the nearest approach to a man's style of tennis. She is without question a hard player, being possessed of a driving serve that is delivered man style and a powerful forehand smash that keeps her foe on the base line. When hard pressed Miss Wills is apt to throw caution to the winds and has more than once given an exhibition of tennis that has yet to be equalled by any woman on an American court.

Miss Wills and Mrs. Bundy have recently crossed racquets, and although the little Californian star was the victor, Mrs. Bundy broke through her service twice and displayed flashes of her old form, a form, that if able to be brought to life again consistently, would extend the present champion and make her play her rarest game if she would be declined the winner.

BOXING

Gene Tunney is holding some of his work-outs for the championship match "to be staged" September 11 at Chicago. He is in the pink of condition, according to word received and is more than confident that he will come out with the title in his grasp.

MORE BOXING

Kid Kaplan who has resigned his featherweight championship because he cannot train down to the required weight after a year and a half of service has entered the ranks of the lightweights.

BASEBALL

According to the latest figures computed Bert Cole of the Missions is the leading hurler of the Pacific Coast League, pitching in 25 games he won 19 and lost 6. Hub Pruett is the leading pitcher of the Oaks with thirteen victories and six losses.

PRO FOOTBALL

With football season peeping its head around the corner it seems as if the universities of the United States are getting rather frightened at the prospects of pro football. Bob Zuppke, the man who trained Red Grange and Major John L. Griffiths, commissioner of the Big Ten have taken pains to assure the sporting world that pro football will not hurt the college game.

MORE OF J. DEMPSEY
Almea's shack hasn't caused as much excitement as the "proposed" Dempsey-Tunney battle. After everything seems assured that the fight will be staged at Chicago announcements come from New York that Tex Rickard will be invited to bring the battle to New York and Tex Rickard has said he will stage a battle on September 14. Probably the whole thing will end up with the fight being staged at Pines or San Pablo.

HARRY HARTZ LEADING U. S. AUTO RACERS

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The veteran automobile race driver, Harry Hartz, has all but annexed the racing championship of 1926, having piled up a total of 2,194 points in the present season, the contest board of the American Automobile association, which regulates racing on the major tracks of the nation, announced today.

Roaring along behind Hartz in the race for the greatest number of points, and the year's championship, are 23 other drivers. His closest competitor and the only one who has a chance to win is Peter de Paolo with 1,475 points. To overtake Hartz, De Paolo must perform amazingly for the remainder of the season. Standings of the others are:

Bennett Hill, 867; Frank Lockhart, 825; Norman Batten, 615; Fred Comer, 594; Earl Devore, 525; Dave Lewis, 500; Earl Cooper, 415; and Frank Elliott, 382.

"Hartz is perhaps the most consistent winner automobile racing history has ever known," said the board.

"His first year as a driver was 1922. In the race for the championship he finished third, the following year he ranked fourth, and in 1924 he dropped to sixth."

Craig Presented With Barnyard Golf Trophy

J. O. Craig singles champion of the 1926 Standard Oil barnyard golf matches has been presented with the trophy for highest honors. J. A. Bell, in the absence of R. T. Osborn made the presentation.

The trophy, a beautiful cup, now rests in the trophy case at the office of the Barrel House, where it will remain for at least a year. The department that annexes the cup for the third consecutive time remains the owner.

Second prize, a pair of Ohio steel horseshoes, was presented to Hubert Holland, also of the Barrel House.

Carquinez Club Directors to Meet Tomorrow

Routine business matters will be discussed when the board of directors of the Carquinez golf club meets tomorrow evening at the club, according to an announcement made yesterday by Arthur Alstrom, secretary of the club.

President U. S. Abbott will be in charge of the session.

But was back in third place again in 1925, and this year, unless De Paolo hoists himself by his own bootstraps, Hartz is going to rank first. No racing driver has ever equalled that record. "And, queerly, he hasn't done it by roaring around the tracks at highest speed, but by taking it easy."

Oakland, February 26, 1926.

I suffered intensely with RHEUMATIC PAINS in my right arm and in my right leg from the thigh down.

I was in such torture that for two months I had been unable to work.

I was then recommended to take the PONG WAN HERB, and after two or three weeks of the herb treatment, I was able to take up my work again. Now that I have completed the eighth week of the treatment, I am feeling splendid.

Utility Chief Contributes to Both Parties

police's office several days before the primary and asked him to give us an officer to accompany one of our men. He did, then the officer was withdrawn and our men came back terrified."

It was then, West said, that the Federal officers aid was sought. Testifying regarding the amount collected for Senator McKinley's campaign, West said:

"From Senator McKinley we received through Henry I. Green, a total of $30,000, $5,000 of this in checks on downstate banks and the rest in currency."

The total campaign expenses in the county, West said, were $155,618.07 of which $3,528.93 remained unpaid at the time he had made out the statement he submitted to the committee.

Senator Reed requested that Secretary West reveal the name of the contributors, at which West demurred for a time.

"This was a county campaign and I want to say," said Secretary West, "that I have been collecting money for 25 years for political campaigns but never found it necessary to reveal the names of the contributors in that case."

"The committee doesn't agree with you in that case," smiled Senator Reed. "We have a very bitter, tense factional fight on in the county and we fear that the contributors might be made the victims of vicious discrimination, but I think I can give their names from memory. Here they are:—

Harrison B. Riley 5,000
Harry I. Green 30,000
Henry Haugen, Either 2,500 or 3,000.

William Wrixley 2,000
Robert P. Lamont 5,000
Noah B. Judah 9,000
William Strance 1,000
P. J. McShane 10,000
Walter Jacobs 1,000
Conrad Poppenhausen 500.

"These are the names I recall at present," added West. In addition West said the committee had collected about 640,000 more from the candidates in the form of assessments.

West then told of his 25 years of friendship with the utilities magnate, how he had become an investor when the Insull Company was in its infancy almost, and added that his holdings now were "substantial."

NEW BUICKS TO GO ON DISPLAY ON JULY 31

C. C. Kratzer, C. F. Draper and L. C. Kratzer will leave this morning for San Francisco where they will attend an important meeting of the California distributors of Buick automobiles. An advance showing of the new models will be made while they are there.

The purpose of showing the new cars, to be presented to the public on July 31, is to give the dealers an opportunity to try out the cars and to demonstrate that extraordinary claims made by the builders are founded on sound facts.

On Thursday the trio will again go to San Francisco and will be given the chance to try out the new models, according to Draper.

Returning on Thursday evening several of the new models of cars will be driven here to be placed on exhibition in the Kratzer show rooms at Tenth street and Bissell avenues on Saturday, July 31.

FAMOUS RESORTS SUFFER

JACKSONVILLE, Florida, July 27.—One hundred and twenty miles of the southern Florida coast line from Port Pierce to Miami was in the area swept by the hurricane Monday and early today.

Such well known resorts as Palm Beach, Lake Worth Del Rey, Boca Raton, Coral Gables, and Florida City suffered from the tropical gale. Because of the disruption of communication no complete survey of the damage has been possible.

SHIP IN DISTRESS

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The Coast Guard cutter Sure has gone to the aid of the Italian steamship Ansaldo S. Giorgio reported rudderless in a terrific rain and windstorm off the Florida coast, according to the Navy department dispatch from the Key West station.

An earlier message from Jupiter Inlet, Florida, said the Italian steamship was rudderless about eight miles east of Hillsboro, Florida, and was in need of immediate assistance.

Later the Jupiter Inlet station was reported put out of commission by the storm sweeping the Florida coast.

HEAVY LOSS

MIAMI, Fla., July 27.—A tropical hurricane which swept up from the Caribbean Sea and yesterday struck the Bahamas Islands today had taken a toll of millions of dollars in damage and possibly heavy loss in life and shipping.

The Italian steamship Ansaldo San Giorgio Secondo, with 30 persons aboard, was adrift late today with a damaged rudder and in immediate danger of being swamped by the gigantic seas. A wireless message from the Ward liner Orizaba, which had been standing by the Italian ship, said it had been carried out of sight by the heavy waves and that its fate was unknown.

Another distress message was received this afternoon from the Danish tanker Wilhelm A. Reide-mann near Miami.

Reports from Brunswick, Ga., said the motorboat Zulets, with 25 persons aboard, had not been heard from since Monday morning when it started on a one day cruise. Anxiety was also felt here for the yacht Cinnabar which sailed for the Bahamas Saturday with ten persons aboard.

An unidentified fishing boat was reported sunk off the Florida coast between Miami and Palm Beach with a loss of eight lives, and several small steamers which run between Miami and the Bahamas were missing.

The heaviest property damage was reported from Nassau in the Bahamas where it was said the loss was $5,000,000. The loss in Liner Seminole bound from New York to Miami had finally turned back to escape the storm on orders from the company's New York offices and would arrive in Jacksonville late tonight to discharge its passengers and crew.

The passengers will be taken from her to Miami by train.

Miami and Palm Beach were almost entirely cut off from communication with the outside world. Commercial telephones and telegraph companies are routing all messages for these two cities in round about ways. After intermittent service all day telephone communication with West Palm Beach was finally entirely lost this afternoon and the telegraph companies also reported their wires down.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hansen and daughter, Jean, spent the week on the Russian River.

The vicinity of Miami was estimated tonight at $100,000.

The hurricane, which is moving very slowly up the Florida coast, was between Miami and Jupiter Inlet today and headed north-westerly.

The first distress calls from the Ansaldo were picked up early today. The Orizaba wireless she was standing by but unable to take off the passengers of the crippled ship because of the high seas. The position was given as about 50 miles north-east of Miami.

The Clyde liner Seminole, bound from New York to Miami, from which no word had come since last night, reported late today that she had outridden the storm and was proceeding safely to this port.

Charge Judge Fixed Hanging Date by Lot

On the ground that the superior judge fixed the date of execution by lot for the hanging of Isaac Wolfgang, youthful murderer of a Los Angeles policeman, Oliver Densmore, the Supreme Court of California was again appealed to to stay the execution.

Several attempts have been made to save the slayer from execution when he appeared for resentencing the judge placed five slips of paper in a hat and drew out one of them, according to Wolfgang's attorney, Ernest Spagnoli.

Spagnoli claims that each of the slips bore the date of one of the Fridays in September and the one chosen was September 10. He charges that the judge left his authority to chance rather than by assuming the responsibility himself.
